- Steve Manns (568 Weirich): He expressed gratitude for being re-elected as chair and looks forward to working with Commissioner Bagierek as vice chair.

10. Commissioner Comments:

- Baldwin – He is honored to be part of the group and has admiration for the commission's previous work.
- LaChey - He highlighted the importance of having attorneys on the commission and defends their value.
- Clark – He welcomed Commissioner Baldwin and thanked him for volunteering. He is pleased that they got the ADU special land use standards amended to make it reasonable for the people, the existing residents that already have ADU's in place.
- Marineau – He welcomed Commissioner Baldwin. He would like to continue to look at ADU's. He believes that if someone is a full-time resident and they want to rent out a structure on their property, that they should make it as easy as possible for them. He looks forward to getting the bed and breakfast thing resolved.
- Gaunt – She appreciates the diverse expertise on the commission and welcomes new Commissioner Baldwin.
- Bagierek – He commented on the importance of maintaining a balanced commission and the value that lawyers bring. He expressed concern for the people of California affected by the fire disaster and the importance of resource management.

11. Adjournment:

Motion by LaChey, second by Gaunt, to approve adjournment of the meeting. Upon voice vote, motion carried 6-0. Vice Chair Bagierek adjourned the meeting at 8:02 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sara Williams, Deputy Clerk
